

A Laughing Cry

Leave it as you found it before you were there
leave me as you find me I'll keep my hands behind me and keep it all inside of me

I see a laughing cry
in a passing sky
and I wave goodbye

Is there fun behind it all the race to nowhere, then the call crashing, flaming, diving, a whale beached, is crying a balanced rock that will not fall

I see a laughing cry
in a passing sky
and I wave goodbye,
then I close my eyes
and I feel the night
and I wave goodbye

Everything's become so real I long for how I used to feel lying by the water in the sun waiting for the fun now everything's become so real

I see a laughing cry
in a passing sky
and I wave goodbye,
then I close my eyes
and I feel the night
and I wave goodbye
with a laughing cry
