

Alone

it's lonely out today
it's lonely everyday
but it would be so right if you would stay with me tonight

it's lonely out today
I'm thinkin' everyday you could make the winter warm if you could mend what you've torn

I'm so alone
I'm so alone
I'm so alone
I'm so alone

the mood has gone away
the memories all fade you're just a face I see behind which there's no mystery the face I see

I'm so alone
I'm so alone
I'm so alone
I'm so alone
