

Anymore

if you find me here today it's the same as yesterday it's the same spot everyday
'til the daylight goes away my life's in syndication everyday is duplication won't you pass the stimulation

'til the daylight goes away

I wanna be this way then I get this way don't wanna be this way anymore I wanna feel this way then I feel this way don't wanna feel this way anymore if you find the time then call me or send me something to enthrall me it's the nothingness that stalls me

'til the daylight goes away

there's a clock inside my mind if I'm late that's where you'll find me rest assured I will not stay I'll return to everyday
'til the daylight goes away
