

Dark Invasion of the Neocons

march—hey
march—hey
we're marching down to beat you down wrapped in the red, white and blue with a jesus cross, all liberty is lost across the constitution, we march on you we are the neocons, we are the neocons we are the war machine, we are the empire who are you?

march of the neocons
march proud neocons we're marching now to claim this ground for jesus, where tyranny sounds we'll march you down, where razor wire surrounds the prisons built for you the fema camps were built for you
