

Darkest Dreams

I want you completely
I feel what you feel I want all you conceal
in the dark of your darkest dreams

I crave all that you do
I see what you see I dream of you only
in the dark of your darkest dreams

I hear your lonely cry
and I don't believe your alibi because I'm here at your side your eyes are far away
you're a cat that never strays you're gone, yet you stay

I see through the hazes
I've walked passed the rain I feel all of your pain in the dark of your darkest tears

I'll lead when you falter and follow, while you lead I'll bleed all that you bleed but, in the dark of my darkest fears I cry out but you don't hear you turn away, then disappear please don't leave me standing here in the dark of my darkest fears

and I don't believe your alibi
because I'm here by your side

Your eyes are far away
you're a cat that never strays
you're gone and yet, you stay in the dark of my darkest dreams
