

Empire of the Mind

scintillating scenery a vision for the blind where real is warped and wonderful ordinary and sublime follow disconnections disregard all signs and enter through the exit to the empire of the mind
the empire of the mind

whispers turn to moans in the whipping of the wind and the sun must be extinguished before the moon lighting begins nothing lasts forever sans the eternity of time so travel with alacrity
