

Frozen

you simply fade to gray and the memories pass away with the warmth of yesterday until the chill is all that stays

and I'm frozen
thrown away
lost and broken
while miles away
in a clear hot day
you melt away

you never asked me why you never let me see you cry you left me here alone to die too cold to live too cool to try

and I'm frozen

cast away
alone and frozen
while miles away
in a clear warm day
you fade away

frozen
tossed away
lost and broken
while miles away
in a summer's day
you play away

frozen
thrown away
lost and broken
while miles away
in a clear warm day

frozen, frozen, frozen, frozen while you melt away
