

Ghosts and Shadows

why would you leave me here?
why did you fly this empty room?
where the city lights seep through my window forming ghosts and shadows of faded gray and blue

why did this city change?
why did the music die and leave a tomb?
and these barren walls, now sad reminders just ghosts and shadows
of faded gray and blue

why did the fates step in?
why did your spirit fly and leave this gloom?
and these aching notes won't help me find you in the ghosts and shadows
of faded gray and blue
ghosts and shadows,
haunting visions
of you
