

Just Because

why can love be so strong how can love last so long singin' it in every song
just because

in and out of reality someone tell me why I can't see if you'll please release me
just because

just because I love you
even though you've found someone new and even though I said I'd always be true you left me blue
you left me here
just because
just because
just because
just because

hearing songs that seem to rhyme counting loves to pass the time still your name continues to chime within my heart
just because

and I'll ask you once again will you tell me where she's been I didn't want her as just a friend
just because

even though you've found someone new
just because
just because
just because
just because
