

New Years Song

is this just a quest for a lazy caress is it all just a test for impending softness the tide is strong for a normal life a hand of money and a heart thats satisfied

here's the first song of 1991
and so the words will lead the notes along
here's the first song of 1991
and it goes on and on and on are you still writing, hold on at any cost once the song is gone, the thing is lost are you still riding high upon your wall or is it now a fence about to fall

here's the first song of 1991
and the words will lead the notes along
here's the first song of 1991
and it goes on and on and on

I pray now for the music god to rescue me with the melodies and transport me to a silent sounding place I plead for life's simplicities whose time table are you lying on what occupies your time, what turns you on what are your goals, have you got the time are your words for real or just for rhyme

here's the first song of 1991
and so the words will lead the notes along
here's the first song of 1991
and it goes on and on and on

I pray now for the music god to rescue me
with the melodies and transport me
to a silent sounding place I plead for life's simplicities

I pray now for the music god to rescue me
with the melodies and transport me
to a silent sounding place I plead for life's simplicities

here's the first song of 1991
and the words will lead the notes along
here's the first song of 1991
and the words will lead the notes along