

One Life

no second chances
there are no second chances
for you here
you chose your poison
so let's be clear
there is no salvation
just quiet summation
determination
there are no second chances
for you here

the truth must be fought for it isn't offered up
for free
you must earn it
you must want to see
there is no redemption
there is no exception
no exemption
for it is now
or never will it be

one life
one life

the ride is finite
there are no new lives
yet to relive
we choose our own paths we take and we give
there is no salvation
just quiet summation
then termination
for us here

one life
one life
and no second chances
one life
