

Rain Eyes

when I left her there
in the rain soaked air
and boarded that train to God knows where I was feeling pretty low but she let me know
my tears were not alone
my fears were overblown
my faith was in her hands only she could understand the feelings deep inside I could no longer hide

she cried
she cried

and she made me come alive
when we kissed goodbye
I saw the love in her eyes

I sat in a bar
and played my guitar
to a noisy crowd
that talked too loud
to hear my songs
of love gone wrong
and shattered dreams
for hours it seems
but my mind is kind
and the time unwinds
to a girl whose eyes
emphasized my life

she cried
she cried
she cried

and she made me come alive
when we kissed goodbye
