

Same Old This

same old roots
underneath this tree
same old fire
burns in me

same old this
same old that same old fleas
on the same old cat
same old dust
on the same old chair
always goin'
never gettin' nowhere

same old paint
on the same old walls
the same old summer's become the same old fall
and the same old list
needs the same old checks but, this same old man
hasn't given up yet

'cause this same old life with the same old change seems to circle 'round
and rearrange
behind the same old hope for the same old dream
is the same old me