

Spinuendo

those buildings didn't fall down they blew up the temperature's not rising it is falling the terrorists aren't hiding behind every bush and tree they're meeting behind golden doors and creating your reality with spinuendo

spinuendo
lies mixed in with a dash of truth and poured into an echo chamber repeated like it's something new it's programmed false reality as if the TV is the ultimate word of what is and isn't so it's spinuendo
spinuendo

those injections that they sell you will give you the disease and the jackboots sent to protect you will drive you to your knees and the trusted face who reads the news should never be believed 'cause he's reading what he's paid to read he's paid for to deceive you

with spinuendo
repeated like it's something new
it's programmed false reality
as if the TV is the ultimate word
of what is and isn't so
it's spinuendo
spinuendo
round and round and round we go

and round and round we go
