

Walls are Gone

You can't save me no more you can't save me no more, you cant save me

The roof and walls are gone the roof and walls are gone, the walls are gone

Nothing they say is real nothing they say is real, it isn't real

The price of freedom's blood the price of freedom's blood, the price is blood

The razor wire surrounds the happy picnic grounds, the siren sounds

Behind the lies, are truth behind the lies, are truth, the lies are truth

Nightmares become the real nightmares become real, nightmares are real

But, evil always falls evil always falls, evil falls

But, you can't save me no more
you can't save me no more, you can't save me
but, save me
